wisconsin.com Wisconsin Business Directory

Hi wisconsin.com,

This week we are featuring the wisconsin.com Wisconsin Business Directory. We have been expanding the directory to include not only for profit businesses, but also non-profits, community organizations and government Websites. Our Business Directory is ever expanding and will continue to expand as new entries are added.

The wisconsin.com Business Directory will list Wisconsin businesses two ways. First alphabetically and second by business category. The basic business entry will include the business name, community it is located in and the business Website.

There is no fee to be included in the wisconsin.com Wisconsin Business Directory. There is small fees to enhance the business directory entry. For example you can link to the business Website, add phone numbers, business address, pictures, map of the business location including driving instructions to that business, and more.

If you know any Wisconsin business, non-profit or community organization, encourage them to add their business to our directory. We are also searching the Internet for Wisconsin businesses to add to the directory as a basic listing.
